Mission Statement

Residents for Community Change, is a group of Southeast Community Leaders whose purpose is to protect the civil rights of Southeast residents and business persons and to help them co-exist in a safe, healthy and physically pleasing environment. Committed to encouraging the exchange of ideas, experiences and resources among governing officials, support agencies, Southeast neighbors and other stakeholders.

Vision Statement

R4CC goal is to become an instrumental force in pinpointing valuable sources of information concerning the welfare of Southeast citizens and to make this knowledge accessible by:

- Encouraging Southeast residents to be trained and actively participate in the Neighborhood Block Watch Program.
- Recruiting youths to attend R4CC meetings so that they may be informed of current events, issues and trends; as well as participate and contribute valuable information.
- Maintaining a referral service accessible by telephone, written material and/or group sessions.
- Revitalizing the Southeast Community by conducting neighborhood street maintenance projects on a seasonal basis.

Meetings are held on the 3rd Thursday of each month
Time: 6:30 p.m.
Location: Mt. Haven Missionary Baptist Church
3484 Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr.
Cleveland, Ohio 44104
